Both teams used the open form style of the year.

Both teams used the open form style of play, punting frequently and using the forward passe many times and pulled it off successfully a number of times, while the ligh school players could not make the play work so often.

The game brought out some individual stars on the playing of the two teams and individual work on the part of the Y M. C. A team assisted greatly in making the winning secret for the team. ## Flying Outfielder Of Giar

Beals Becker, the "flying" entfielder of the New York Giants. The telm "flying" has been given him owing to his methods in grabbing off a firthat would ordinarily go beyond his reach. With a great jump Beals his often got his mit on the ball when it looked sure for a home run. His batting work of late is also something worth commenting on, as he is the tainly holding his own with the stick.
